

1 vote which it would take to accomplish that purpose?

2 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Boyer.

3 DELEGATE BOYER: I can see where perhaps Delegate
4 Marion and others are confused about this.

5 10.02 merely is a method of amending the 6 Constitution. 10.03 deals with the calling of a Constitu-
7 tional Convention.

8 I think the best example I can give you, prob-
9 ably, is what we are doing here. We have made some propo-
10 sals. We have offered some resolutions. We have made 11 amendments. And I think that the proposal referred to in 12 line 47 of section 10.03 is broader than a mere amendment
13 to the Constitution.

14 When we are calling the Constitutional Convention, 15 there are many things that could happen, more than just an 16 amendment, and any proposal recommended by the Convention for 17 changing the Constitution shall be adopted; but it is 18 broader than the actual technical word "amendment" that is 19 referred to in 10.02.

20 DELEGATE JAMES: Delegate Marion.

21 DELEGATE MARION: Perhaps you can tell me, then, or give me one illustration of a proposal for changing
